)

On February 9, 2007 Martin Isias pled guilty to Count Two of a 21 count third superseding indictment. Martin Isias is currently scheduled to be sentenced on June 7, 2007. There are several sentencing issues which will require the defense to present documentation to the probation office. Defense investigator, Robert Storey, has now interviewed relevant defense witnesses and obtained transcripts necessary for sentencing. Mr. Isias is in the process of submitting informal objections to probation based on this information.

Therefore Mr. Isias requests that his judgment and sentencing be continued to August 6, 2007 at 9:00 a.m. if that date is available with the Court. The government and the probation office have no objection to this request. The parties request the following schedule:

Informal Objections - July 12, 2007

1 Final Report - July 19, 2007
2 Sentencing Memorandum - July 26, 2007
3 Opposition - August 2, 2007
